

Find out about nurse practitioners in Alberta

1-800-252-9392
CRNA.com

Nurse Practitioners are Regulated Health Professionals who provide safe, competent and ethical health care to patients and families.

Nurse Practitioners Are

Educated

- With a master's degree from an approved nurse practitioner program
- Have foundational registered nursing education and practice
- Required to pass a national registration exam

Regulated

- Registration can be verified at CRNA.com
- Follow a code of ethics and professional standards
- Maintain professional competencies by continuous learning
- Have a broad independent scope of practice built on a foundation of registered nursing knowledge

Everywhere

- Alberta's 1000+ nurse practitioners work wherever you get health care – in hospitals, homes and community-based clinics

NURSE PRACTITIONERS PROVIDE ONGOING CARE THAT INCLUDES

